Polk County Treasurer Offers Satellite Station for Property Tax

MARY MALONEY, POLK COUNTY TREASURER--The deadline for payment of the second installment of the 2011/2012 property tax is Monday, April 1.

Mary Maloney, Polk County Treasurer, is once again opening a satellite station for the payment of property taxes at Polk County River Place to reduce traffic at the downtown office. The satellite station will be located at 2309 Euclid Avenue, Room 6 on the East end of the building, between 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. Thursday, March 28th and Friday, March 29th. The satellite station will have limited employee resources, hours and payment processing options. Accepted forms of payment at the satellite station are check, credit card, debit card, and electronic check. Service Fees apply to credit card, debit card, and electronic check payments. NO cash transactions are accepted at the satellite station.

The Treasurer's online payment center, www.IowaTaxAndTags.gov, has been modernized for an improved user experience with additional payment options. Maloney states, "We are pleased to announce to our citizens that we have lowered the service fee associated with an electronic check to $0.30. In comparison, a postage stamp is now $0.46. We encourage citizens to check out our improvements at www.IowaTaxAndTags.gov and utilize the safe and convenient payment option of their choice."

To obtain more information regarding tax payments please call 286-3060.
